TAKING CARE OF BABY

a play by Dennis Kelly

"You are making an entertainment of the greatest tragedy of my life..."

Pandora Theatre Company presents 'Taking Care of Baby' in the intimate setting of the Burton-Taylor Studio. Dennis Kelly's modern masterpiece recreates the extraordinary story of a mother accused of murdering her two infant children, and the lives of the people around her. A moving and thought-provoking exploration of the interplay between different individuals' realities in a family rocked by tragedy - you'll be forced to question everything you are shown...
